The future of travel has never been more challenging. We are here to help you meet that challenge. More than ever, travelers will need to be reassured and provided with services that provide peace of mind.

We work closely with our clients, governments and health care providers to deploy integrated travel risk and crisis management solutions, supported by our proprietary GRID<sup>SM</sup> journey management platform and our exclusive relationship with the Johns Hopkins Emergency Medicine Division of Special Operations.

EXPERT ADVISORS TO HELP YOU RESTART YOUR BUSINESS

Our in-house medical, security and intelligence experts have decades of experience in travel risk mitigation and crisis management planning. Our teams of doctors, nurses, paramedics, senior military intelligence and special forces veterans can help you implement new procedures to maintain the highest level of traveler health, safety and compliance with all government requirements.

TOTALCARE<sup>SM</sup>

Telehealth access to trusted physicians with substantial expertise in global traveler medical concerns. This fully-integrated model provides access to doctors for real-time diagnosis and treatment anywhere, anytime.
