

THE WHOLE THING HAPPENED IN FOUR SECONDS |

Angie Heister tells the story of her life-saving rescue

While walking with her husband in the African bush during a safari, Angie Heister heard a roar. She had enough time to yell "lion!" but it turned out to be a Cape buffalo, one of the world's most dangerous animals. The buffalo charged, and Angie's life changed in an instant. That's when she called Global Rescue.

click here to watch the video

INJURED 12,000 MILES FROM HOME | Jim Gildea tells his story

U.S. freestyle skier Eddie Gildea suffered a serious fall while training in New Zealand. His father, Jim, turned to Global Rescue to stay connected every step of the way as Eddie returned home to heal.

click here to watch the video

PROTECT YOUR TRIP | Add Signature Travel Insurance to your membership

For more than a decade, Global Rescue has been a worldwide leader in protecting its members when things go wrong abroad. Now, Global Rescue members can protect their travel investment by adding Signature Travel Insurance.

click here to read more

HOW ARE WE DOING | Take our two question survey

We would love to hear your feedback as a valued Global Rescue member. Please take a moment to answer our two question survey.

click here to take the survey!

MEMBER ADVISORY | Bombs explode in New York, New Jersey

Several violent incidents occurred across the United States on Sept. 17-19, including a homemade bomb explosion in New York City that injured 29 and a knife attack in St. Cloud, Minn., that left nine injured and the attacker dead. Global Rescue's security and intelligence personnel have compiled an advisory to our members explaining the timeline of events, an assessment of the danger, and advisory to anyone who might be traveling in the weeks ahead.

click here to read the member advisory

Want to receive more content like this? Click here

STAY CONNECTED:

